NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onancock.

Mr. William Wales, of Salisbury, Md., nephew of Mrs. J. D. Hawk, is a guest at her home.

A force of hands are engaged clearing the gutters and improving the streets otherwise.

Mrs. S. Uphur Hopkins, of Penn., arrived at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Powell, on Wednesday.

The grand regent of the Royal Arcanum in Virginia was present at the meeting of the Council here on Tuesday night. They had prepared a feast of oysters for the occasion.

Mr. A. J. Roughton, a well known business man of Norfolk, and Miss Bessie Crowder, the accomplished daughter of Rev. J. W. Crowder, former pastor of church at Onancock and Andrew Chapel, were united in the bonds of holy wedlock in the city of Washington, D. C., at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon of last week.

At a called meeting of the Sunday school, M. E. Church, South, on Monday night of last week for the purpose of nominating a superintendent for the ensuing term, Mr. Cuthbert Slocumb received a majority of the votes and was elected by the board of stewards at the fourth quarterly conference on last Saturday. Mr. Jos. A. Latham has held the office for about eight years.

There is inquiry for our town property by persons who wish to settle here. Retiring business men and farmers are constantly turning this way to find a pleasant place. Farmers who prefer to give up their large acres are coming here and working farm gardens on the intensive system, with profit. There are good locations, both town and suburban, that can be had. If the owners would make it known by the use of printers ink, there would be two parcels sold to every one as at present. There is room for enterprise in this line.

Only.

Mrs. Lynn Bull and Mrs. Eva Parks are in the Monumental city this week.

Mr. L. W. Belote shipped 43 baskets of peas from our station last Monday.

Produce Exchange Movement.

The meeting at Eastville, Va., as heretofore advertised, was duly called to order on last Saturday. After reading the minutes of the last meeting at Parkley, the working plans of the Exchange as formulated by Mr. A. J. McMath and others and as printed in last week's papers were read and discussed. Great interest in the movement was shown by representative men of Eastville and vicinity, and in the general discussion of the movement Mr. Otto F. Mears spoke at some length, advising that the Exchange use its utmost endeavor to sell all the produce it handles and ship as little as possible, as the shipped produce must necessarily come in competition with that sold here and thus break the power of the Exchange to hold the produce to its highest market value; that by selling almost entirely the Exchange would be far more successful and that then the buyers abroad and commission men would come here with us and buy from us, thereby minimizing our expenses. He also advised that the salaries of the officers of the company should be fixed high enough to insure getting good and reliable men for the positions.

The meeting next Saturday is at Hallwood on the arrival of the up train, and the next meeting is at Marionville, (Nassawadox Station), and the following Saturday, which is the 28th of this month, the meeting at Onley will be held for the purpose of organizing the Exchange and electing its officers.

Subscription blanks, proxies for those who cannot attend the Onley meeting in person, and agreements endorsing the plans of the Exchange as published, are now in the hands of various persons throughout the two counties, and it is hoped that all those favoring the plan and movement will sign early and for as many shares as they possibly can. Persons holding these papers are requested to be prompt in sending them in to me in time to use at the Onley meeting. The subscription blanks call for five per cent of the amount subscribed to be paid at the time subscription is made, and the balance will be in several payments extending, it is presumed, well into the spring of next year.

Notice to Lee District Teachers.

By virtue of the office conferred on me and in accordance with the by-laws of the Accomac Teachers' League, I take this method of request, in the public school teachers of Lee Magisterial District to meet at Onley, Va., in the schoolhouse thereat, on Saturday, October 21st, inst., at 10 a. m., for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' League in said district. As business of importance will demand their attention a full attendance is desired.

To The People of the Eastern Shore.

The monument to the memory of the sons of Accomac and Northampton who gave their lives to the "Lost Cause" is completed, in position, and will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies at Parkley, on Friday, October 20th inst. Hon. Beverly B. Mumford, of Richmond, and other orators of national reputation will deliver addresses. There will be other new and interesting features, among them the parade of veterans and roll call of all Eastern Shore Confederate soldiers—dead and living. Valuable souvenirs—among them a costly gold watch—will be voted away. It is hoped that all who love the cause for which these brave men died will join on this occasion in doing honor to their memory. They fought for a cause dear to us all; they died defending our country, our homes. They were heroes, our heroes and to their memory we have reared this humble shaft—something to tell to future generations that the Eastern Shore gave of her sons to help in the defense of principles for which Lee and Jackson and other immortal patriots fought and that they defended them even unto death. They gave their all to us; let us, then, devote this one day to our noble dead, in unveiling to the world this slight tribute to their memory.

An unusually large assemblage is expected. We, therefore, ask the people of the two counties to forward to Parkley, in due time, necessary supplies for the dinner table. We hope this simple request will be sufficient. From the ladies we also ask contributions for the fancy department, which we hope to have on an extensive scale. All supplies can be sent to Jno. H. Wise, Parkley, who will receive them. Special trains will be run to suit every locality.

Should the 20th be unfit for the unveiling ceremonies the same will be deferred until the following day in which event due notice will be given by telegraph and telephone. This is probably the last time we shall ever be called upon to ask any thing in behalf of our fallen comrades. We therefore hope for a hearty response to our appeal.

The following ladies are named as a committee of arrangements for dinner table and fancy department: Mrs. M. L. Lewis, Mrs. Jno. W. Edmonds, Mrs. D. H. Johnson, Miss Bessie Gunter, Mrs. Dr. Ewell, Miss Lillian Melson, Mrs. E. C. Pate, Miss Etta Wise, Miss Lena Johnson, Mrs. Geo. W. Core, Mrs. Judge Ross, Mrs. Samuel T. Waples, Mrs. Geo. D. Wise, Miss Bettie Johnson, Miss Eula Johnson.

FRANK FLETCHER, Commander H. W. Camp C. V. Jno. H. Wise, Adjutant.

Junior Order United American Mechanics.

The fifteenth annual session of the Junior Order United American Mechanics will be held at Cape Charles, Va., on October 17th. This order, while the youngest organization of its kind in this country, is also, one of the strongest and from its rapid growth in the past year it bids fair to exceed its own previous record. In this State the order has increased at a very rapid rate, numerous new councils being organized in all sections and many new members being added to the councils already in existence. Several local councils have doubled their membership in the past year, and one council doubled its roll in two months. The State organization now numbers about 100 hundred and forty councils, with a membership of about ten thousand. The year just closing has been the most prosperous in the history of the order.

By virtue of the office conferred on me and in accordance with the by-laws of the Accomac Teachers' League, I take this method of request, in the public school teachers of Lee Magisterial District to meet at Onley, Va., in the schoolhouse thereat, on Saturday, October 21st, inst., at 10 a. m., for the purpose of organizing a Teachers' League in said district. As business of importance will demand their attention a full attendance is desired.

Respectfully, J. H. Nock, Vice Pres. of Lee Dist.

Wachapreague, Va., Oct. 11, 1899.

Teachers' Institute.

The first Monthly Institute of the teachers of Pungoteague District will be held at Craddockville Hall on Friday night and Saturday morning, October 20th and 21st. Every teacher in the district is requested to be present and all who desire to be entertained for the night will please make it known to me on or before Friday, October 13th. A suitable programme has been arranged for Friday night and everyone is cordially invited.

HENRY A. WISE, Keller, Va.

Miss Gladstone, of Exmore, Va., has just returned from the city with her new fall and winter millinery. Her stock embraces the latest styles and designs. At your earliest convenience call at her place, inspect same and be convinced that you can do no better anywhere.

All persons, indebted to Dr. Joseph E. Brodwater's estate for medical account, will please pay same as soon as possible to his daughter, Miss Carrie P. Brodwater or E. S. Oldham, Temperanceville, who are authorized to give receipt. All such accounts not paid by November first, will be placed in officer's hands for collection.

M. Oldham, Executor.
